SAINT PATRICK'S DAY

Washington Hall JOHN O'BYRNE, ESQ., OF PHILA

Hail, on Saturday Evening, March 17,-Sala Patrick's Day-at 71-2 o'clock. SUBJECT: The Great Confederation of Kilkenny!

no police court yesterday. Cause why no cases to try.

DIVINE SERVICE.—Bishop Clark, of the M. E. Church, will preach at the 4th street M. E. Church in this city to morrow morning. In the afternoon a centennry meeting will be held, at which addresses will be delivered by several eminent divines. An interesting time is expected.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday, like nearly every one of its predecessors this week, was a most thoroughly disagreeable day—a conglomoration of all the unpleasant elementary features. It "gusted" fitfully—snowed, blowed and rained. A man to be any ways comfortable had to be supplied with an overcost, gum shoes and umbrella. We don't know—and ean't guess—what all it took to make a lady comfortable. So far as our observation went the wind alone had the effect of producing an opposite feeling, judging from appearances.

Lost GEESE.—Early yesterday morning a flock of wild geese were discovered flying around over the city. From their movements it its thought that they ing a flock of wild geese were discover-ed flying around over the city. From their movements it is thought that they were lost—having probably been be-wildered in the night by the city lights. At times they would come very close to the ground-sometimes almost within rifle shot. One curious person ascertained by count that there were just sixty-two geese in the flock. Their appearance excited the curiosity of a good many, and a great many old stories were revived about the peculiarities of this species of the fowl.

MEETING OF THE SOLDERS' AND MERTING OF THE SOLDRING AND SAILORS' LEAGUE.—Those interested should bear in mind that the Soldiers' and Sailors' League of Ohio county meets at the Court House to-night for meets at the Court House to night, for the transaction of other important business. A full attendance is desired of both members and those who wish to become members. The Constitution will be presented for signatures, and any one who wishes to join can do so. The object and designs of this League are sufficiently well known by this time to the public in general and to the returned soldiers in particular.

the election of opermanent officers and for the transaction of other important business. A full attendance is desired of both members and those who wishes to become members. The Constitution will be presented for signatures, and any one who wishes to join can do so. The object and designs of this League are sufficiently well known by this time to the public in general and to the returned soldiers in particular.

SLIP ON THE HEMPFIELD RAILROAD. The train on the Hempfield which left here for Washington on Thursday afternoon got no further than a short distance beyond Claysville, where it was forced to remain by a large land slide, which for some distance covered up, and in places even moved the track. Workmen were busily engaged in removing the obstruction, but how soon they would complete the work could not be told, as the dirt would slip in almost as fast as "removed. The train came back to this city yesterday morning, and in the afternoon started out again for Washington.

"HAVE WEA BOURDON AMONOST US?"

authority that there exists in our city a authority that there exists in our city a "society of Mormons." We have not learned to what degree of faith or practice they have attained—whether they go the whole doctrines of Brigham Young—including polygamy—or not, but are informed that during a recent lilness of a member of the society a cure was attempted by the "laying on of hands." We are opposed from principle to having a little "Utah" in our city, and while we hope that our information may be incorrect, we advise the authorities to be on the watch for violations of our laws.

U. S. Pension Agency Change.—
John Bishop, Esq., of this city, has been applinted U. S. Pension Agent of this Pension District, vice N, Arthur, Esq. This is a deserved compliment to the counting of the county of the society and wife to Mary S. Brinton, for the South half of Lot No. 23, between Marshall and Division streets.

A deed from Beverly M. Eoff, executor, to Union street, Otho Hess, for part of 10 to No. 13, situate on the north side of Union street of Union street

A deed from Thomas Hornbook and this Pension District, vice N, Arthur, Esq. This is a deserved compliment to a worthy gentleman. Mr. Bishop is well known here, he baying long been identified with some of the first interests of the city. He will be remembered particularly from his connection with the Soldiers' Committee during the rebellion, in which capacity he was untiring in his labors — sparing no trouble or labor to further the interests of the soldiers or their families. We learn he enters on the duties of his new office on the list proximo.

SECOND Ward market was tolerably well attended yesterday evening, in spite of the very unpleasant weather. People, however, seemed more disposed to patronize inside sellers than those outside. Eggs were 20c, per dozen; lard 18@20c, per pound; and butter was still offered at the enormously high figures of 50@60c, per pound, and found not a few buyers at those figures. If people would resolve to do without latter for a very short time, its price would come down necessarily. There is no question but that 50 or 60 cents a pound is too much for batter, and while everybody knows it and admits it, still they must have it, and so long as people will buy at those figures, others will sell.

STREET, YARD AND HOUSE CLEANING.—A general disposition—evidently rapidly on the increase—is observable on all sides in the way of cleaning up the streets, yards and cellars of the city
The uppleusant and unwholesome matter is being ejected from all the old cellars and back yards of the city with a vim which is highly commendate,
The amount of filth that some cellars disgorge is really surprising. Half the cellars on some of our streets are daily open in the work, and we are often tempted to take the middle of the street for fear of falling down a recently excavated cellar or receiving a shovel full of dirt about a lundred years old in our face. Keep on with the "reconstruction" of your yards and cellars, good people, and if you disturb the "status" of the good people of the last century, it will make no difference to them now,
and may saye us much trouble, sickness and perhaps worse—even death.
